

Reliant Degrees of Difference Smart Thermostat Program Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions (the “Terms and Conditions”) apply to participants in the Reliant Degrees of Difference Smart Thermostat Program (the “Demand Response Program”) and are between you and Reliant Energy Retail Services, LLC (“Reliant”). The Demand Response Program encourages and enables you to reduce your electricity usage during periods when Texas electricity system demand is high.

Eligibility Requirements for Demand Response Program:

1. You must be a Reliant electricity account holder at the time of any Demand Response Program event.
2. You must have an operable and eligible thermostat manufactured by Vivint, Inc. (“Vivint”) and approved by Reliant (an “Eligible Thermostat”) controlling an HVAC system at the account service address.
3. You must have an active electricity Smart Meter at the account service address.
4. The Eligible Thermostat must be connected to an active Wi-Fi network at the account service address.
5. The Eligible Thermostat must be installed and you must complete the online enrollment process for participation in the Demand Response Program.
6. You agree to the Terms & Conditions set forth in this agreement.

Terms & Conditions for Demand Response Program:

As a participant in the Demand Response Program, you acknowledge and agree that your use of an Eligible Thermostat and your participation in the Demand Response Program are subject to each of the following Terms & Conditions.

You agree to participate in electricity conservation or reduction in response to Demand Response Program events or for other reasons as determined by Reliant. You agree to allow Reliant to coordinate with Vivint to remotely adjust your Eligible Thermostat during your participation in the Demand Response Program.

You always have the ability to opt-out of any particular event by appropriately adjusting the thermostat settings.

Reliant may offer incentives for participating in the Demand Response Program (“Rewards”). A disclosure of any applicable Rewards and how you will receive them were provided to you at enrollment. Reliant may make changes to the Rewards from time to time, including by updating the Demand Response Program details on its website. Reliant reserves the right to cancel or modify the Demand Response Program at any time. Reliant will provide you with at least 14 days advance written notice of any material change to, or discontinuation of, the Demand Response Program; except that any changes to the Demand Response Program made by Reliant as a result of a change in law or that are beneficial to you may be made without advance notice. Notice shall be provided to your email address.

- Participation in the Demand Response Program requires that you complete the enrollment process for your Eligible Thermostat: You can enroll your Vivint smart thermostat and agree to these Demand Response Program terms and conditions at

<https://www.reliant.com/en/residential/electricity/energy-management/degrees-of-difference-rewards> or on the Vivint App

If you have more than one Eligible Thermostat, all such Eligible Thermostats will be enrolled in and subject to the Demand Response Program. Reliant may cancel Demand Response Program participation for any thermostat that does not meet the eligibility requirements set forth in these Terms & Conditions. Failure to successfully install and enroll your Eligible Thermostat with Reliant will prevent your participation in the Demand Response Program.

You are responsible for keeping your email address updated with Reliant. If your email address has changed, is not functioning properly, or is no longer valid, you may not receive Demand Response Program communications from Reliant.

The term of your Demand Response Program Agreement is month-to-month and there is no early termination fee for cancellation.

You acknowledge and agree that your participation the Demand Response Program is subject to these Terms and Conditions. You may cancel your enrollment in the Demand Response Program at any time by calling Reliant at 1-866-222-7100. It may take up to seven (7) days for your cancellation request to be processed. While your cancellation request is being processed, you always have the ability to opt-out of any particular Demand Response event by appropriately adjusting the thermostat settings.

By participating in the Demand Response Program, you agree that Reliant may share your enrollment and usage information with one or more third parties providing services related to the Demand Response Program, including Vivint. You agree that Reliant may suspend or terminate your participation in its Demand Response Program for any reason, including if you move from your residence.
